

1.
  - a. Create a div for main content, that is maybe 20% bigger in size than the current main image. When user click tab, all content should appear within the parameters of this div.
2. Implement side menu for Mobile: It is there, but ideally it slides out...instead of just appearing.
3. For projects tab: when user click the projects tab, display the images from link below in the main content field. For now, if you can lay them out vertically and use scroll view on desktop so user scroll down and content remains in our main content box. On Mobile, ok if you just display all vertically or do same :

Duane Gordon Jr.
Artist's Statement /About me

Duane Gordon's journey to answer the question "Who am I?" mines the distinctly urban landscape and social injustices he experienced growing up in Southwest Philadelphia. A self-defined entrepreneur/artist, Duane Gordon Jr. began his career by hiring artists to produce his custom shirts. He soon realized that he wanted to express his own creativity, and started painting and designing under the name "Originally Distinct."

His unflinching search to illuminate the forces shaping his life and city gives voice to the individuality of those who collect and wear his work. The direct questions and catch phrases he uses are integral to his imagery, and a signature element of his "lifestyle brand." Duane aims to keep growing as an artist, to inspire others to embrace their unique and original selves, and to light a path for emerging artists to become truly self-sufficient. This creative loop feeds Duane's passion for fusing his expanding enterprise with ever more ambitious and personal art.

Mr. Gordon works in a wide range of mediums, from acrylics on canvas and ink on paper to painting directly on found objects such as street signs. He loves creating rich surfaces which catch the eye with subtle yet luminous highlights, and is deeply grateful for the collective of talents who manufacture his limited-edition fashions, jewelry and home accessories.

Duane Gordon's work has been exhibited at the A+D Museum in Los Angeles (August 2020), featured on ABC's FYI Philly (April 2019) and in Voyage Atlanta (July 2020), presented at Trunc, a Northern Liberties artisan boutique for handmade art (2019-20), exhibited in a private show at 1635 Market Street (December 2019), Did a special release for his OD1 High sneaker at Joan Shepp (April 2021) and painted a mural in Old City - 239 Chestnut St. (April 2021). Currently, he is preparing to launch his "Originally Distinct" showroom and gallery in Old City.

5. For Members Only
  - a. When user click this tab, make black modal appear that ask for a "password". For now this good, we may add to this in future requirement.
